STANLEY G. TROTT, P. M.

EXCURSIONS AROUND THE HARBOR,-To those persons who wish to spend their holiday away from the heat and dust of the city, a fine opportu-nity is offered in the different excursions. That will take place to-day. The fine steamers Fannie and Planter are advertised to sail around the harbor, and visit the different points. The Fannie is designed for the white and the Planter for the color od voyagers. In addition to those, the &. Helena will also make the trip, and all who like a life on the ocean wave will be able to indulge their inclinations. The Fourth has always been celebrated by a fish or a sail, and the indications are that the old customs will not be forgotten.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—The delegates from this city to the National Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, held at Montreal, returned on the last trip of the Surages sa. They were hospitably received both at the different cities en route and at Montreal. The Convention met at Montreal on the 19th ult., in the Zion Congregational Church, and elected the folowing officers: President, II. Thank Miller, of Encimuali. Vice-Presidents, the Hon- F. Cham-BEBLAIN, Hartford; E. A. BURBELL, Milwaukee; A. K. Browne, Washington; Charles Youno, Prince Edward's Island: F. Janes Glaxton, Canada East; W. F. C. GREGORY, Potersburg, Va. Secrotaries, JAMES H. KELLOGO, Troy; JOHN A. DAWSON, BOS-ton; SILAS FARMER, Detroit; Alfred Landam, Montreal. In the evening a large meeting of welcome was held in the American Presbyterian Church, at which a number of addresses were made by Major General Russell, K. G. B., Chairman, Sir HENRY HAVELOCK and Gov. POLLOCK, of Pounsylvania, and others. Thursday, June 20th, was spant in listening to an elaborate essay on Association Bible Classes, written by Prof. Dawson Vice-Chancellor of McGill University, Montreal and a discussion upon it. The evening was devoled to a grand concert at the Victoria Skating Rink, where sacred music was sung by a choir of 150 singers, and an orchestra of 50, assisted by the bands of one of the regiments stationed at Mon-treal. On Friday, the corresponding members from different States reported, and Mr. Dawson's essay was further discussed.

The remainder of the session was spent in trans-acting the business of the Association, in hearing the reports of committees, &c. Over 600 dele-gates were present from all sections of the United States and Canada, and the greatest harmony and good fellowship prevailed. Arrangements have been made to send delegates to the World's Con-vention of Christian Associations, to be held at Paris, August 11, 1867. BATHING IN PUBLIC PLACES.—The heat of the summer has caused a revival of aquatic sports, and many of the rising generation, who are almost amphibious in their natures, spend a greater por-tion of their time in the water. Unfortunately, this desire to keep cool has led many of them to infringe the city regulations, and though swimming in the docks or other exposed portions of the city is forbidden, when the water is once gained, they laugh at the laws and defy pursuit. This habit of bathing from the wharves and other pub-lic places has become a perfect suisance to all per sons in these neighborhoods, and stringent orders were issued by the authorities for the police to stop this amusement. For some time the majesty of the law was sufficient to preserve order, and a warning to the offenders was all that was considernecessary, but at last some of the boldest ventured to disobey, and the water was soon thickly covered with bobbing heads. This habit of publie buthing has long been considered a great ovil, but the efforts to stop it nave so far been nugatory. It is not confined to one section, but as both sides of the City are tabooed, the swimmers obstinately insist in infringing all rules of propriety and indulge in their sport almost openly. In former days it was considered perfectly lawful to use the mill ponds at the extreme ends of the rafts, and while this privilege was allowed, the wharves and other exposed portions were comparatively deserted. The growth of the City has necessarily brought the swimmers into public notice, and the West End was also compelled to appeal for protection. Deprived of their accustomed bathing places, the swimmers have of late years been in the habit of defying the law, and notwithstanding the frequent raids made upon them or their clothing, have persisted in their obnexious practices. Although the lower portion of the city has been tabloood, there are a number of places in the up-per wards which could be used with impunity, and if certain spots were set apart by the council there would be fewer violations of the law, and the wharves would be more easily kept clear than at

THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN INDE-PRINDENGE IN CHARLESTON, S. C .- We have before a copy of the South Carolina and American General Gazette, dated Thursday, July 10, 1777. It is volume 20, number 966, and was printed in Charlestown, by R. Wells & Son, at the old printing house, great stationery and book store. The quaint style and antiquated appearance of the pa-per at once attract attention, but it is chiefly valuable because it contains an account of the first celebration of the 4th of July as a national anni The article is so interesting that we republish it entire, and our readers can compare the sayings and doings of ye olden time with those of

"Last Friday, July 4, being the first anniversary of that memorable Æas, AMERICAN INDEPENDENCY, was ushered in with the ringing of bells and a general display of the American colors on all the forts and shipping. The Charleston militia and artillery were reviewed by his Excellency the President, his Honor the Vice-President, the Honorable Members of the Privy Council, &c. At 1 o'clock the great guns of the different forts (Fort Moultrie beginning) were fired to the number seventy-six, alluding to the year 1776, when the thirteen United States emancipated themselves from the British yoke. An elegant entertainment was given at the Council Chamber by his Excellency the President to such of the members of the Logislature as were in town, to the clergy, civil and military officers, and a number of other gentlemen. After dinner, the following thirteen toasts were given, each accompanied by thirteen dis-charges from the field pieces belonging to Captain GRIMBALL'S Artillery Company, viz:

summit of human power and grandour and enjoy every blossing. In the evening there were illuminations and fire-works and the whole happily concluded without the least accident or disturbance.

In the same paper are several proclamations from his excellency Jso. RUTLEDGE, the Governor of the State, which recall foroibly the stirring time through which we have just passed. The Gazette was one of the first papers printed in Charles-ton, and its time stained columns contain many names that are familiar, and others who have all passed away in the ninety years interim between the let celebration of the 4th and to-day.

THE CITADEL, we understand, is to be brilliantly lluminated this ovening. A promonade concer-will be given by the officers of the garrison, to which a number of our citizens have been invited Later in the evening there will be a pyrotechnic display on the Green, which will make that spo he centre of attraction to the admiring crowd.

FIRE. - At 10 P. M., last ovening, the alarm o fire brought out the engines, and the smoke issuing from the paint and oil store of Mr. David Binios, on East Bay, near Elliott street, soon drew them to that spot. It was evidently the work of a: incendiary, as Officer Levy, of the Detective force, had passed the store but a few minutes before the sterm. fore the alarm. The fire was discovered in the front of the building, near the door, but the promptness of the firemen soon subdued the flames. Mr. Burges was insured in Tupper & LANE'S insurance agencies, but the stock is only

THE SPREET CARS AND THE FOURTH .- Notwith tanding the application made, the cars will no be stopped on the 4th, the Company believing that as caterers to the public, they were compelled to run the machine in spite of the Declaration of Inlependence, George Washington, or any other dependence, GEORGE WASHINGTON, or any other man. It was considered by some parties that to have the day observed properly, a thorough sus-pension of all business was necessary, and that fow persons were more entitled to a holiday than the conductors and drivers of the street cars. Unfortunately for them, this doctrine has not found favor in the eyes of the powers that be, and they will have to pursue their weary rounds, notwith-standing the national holiday.

Hon. F. J. Moses presiding.—The trial of Smart Chisolm, for the murder of his step-daughter, Cornelia Verdier, was continued, and the remaining witnesses were examined. The entire morn ng was consumed in hearing this testimony, and the Court took a recess from 2 to 3 P. M. In the afternoon the argument for the defence was open ed by Wm. TENNENT, Esq., who in an elequent speech laid the case of his client before the jury he reviewed the testimony advanced, and showed that he was indicted solely on circumstantial evidence, and there was not sufficient proof to base a conviction upon. Mr. TENNENT'S argument was clear, sound and logical, and though but a young cicar, sound and logical, and though but a young lawyer, has shown that he has not mistaken his calling, but will evidently mount the legal ladder. H. W. Schnorder, Esq., followed Mr. Tennerr, and was replied to by the Attorney-General. Judge Mozes charged the jury, who retired to their room. and at a late hour brought in a verdict of Guilty. with a recommendation to merey.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT, Hon. GEORGE S. Bryan, presiding.—On motion of D. T. Cornin Esq., District Attornoy, the order for a new jury list, the same as that given in the District Court was issued. No business of importance

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE. - The anniversary of the Declaration of Independence on July 4th, 1776, has ever since been celebrated as a great national festival throughout the United States and wherever Americans are ass bled over the whole world. From Maine to Oregon, from the great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico. in every town and village this day has been ushered in with the ringing of bells, the firing of cannon the display of the national flag, and other evidence of public rejoicing. A national salute is fired at sunrise, noon, and at sunset from every fort and man-of-war; the troops and patriotic processions parade the streets, the Declaration is reac and Fourth of July orations delivered.

This was the programme in the past, but the recent war has materially changed the public senti-ment regarding the day. In the South there wil probably be few cities where the fourth will re ceive the same observances as were customary six years ago. The present poverty of the coun-try and the absence of the militia displays, have ended in a great measure to destroy the old cuthusiasm felt for the fourth.

Charleston will be enlivened on this occasion by the usual salutes, and by a liberal display of bunt-ing from the public buildings and shipping hough it has been with great difficulty that a sur ficient number of flags could be obtained, as for some years past they have been at a discount in the South. There will be a procession of differen sucleties in the morning, which, Judging from the published programme, will be quite an affair. The greatest feature of the day, however, and no which will recall more pleasing memories that any other, will be the sweet sound of St. Michael's chimes, which are to be rung during the day. There are to be rang unring the day.

There are few persons who have not always associated the day with the sound of these bells, and the music that will float in the air to-day will have a more powerful effect in reconciling us to the present than any display that could be made.

In the alternoon those parties who are so dis-pesed can leave the city and visit the different points of interest in the harbor. The Fannie Capt. Peck, and the St. Helena, Capt. Rumler, will make excursion trips around the harbor. These beats will be well supplied with music and refreshments, and afford the passengers a splendid opportunity to enjoy the scenery and breath

The state of the thermometer will compel many persons to exercise their ingenuity in trying to keep cool, and they can kill time and invigorate their heated systems by taking ices at the differ ent gardons. As a holiday the day comes very opportunely, and is welcomed by none with more enthusiasm than by the types, who are a hard working class an

THE MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS .- The highest musical authorities of the land have pro-nounced in their favor, as meeting a want which as long been felt, and combining more reliable qualities than any other instrument of the charac-ter now before the public. Among other advantages in their favor, they occupy little space, are getten up in highly ernamental style, are remarkable for their great volume of sound, the case with which they are played, the simplicity of their construction, and their adaptation to all kinds of music.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

To the Ladies.—Stoll, Webb & 'Co., will open his morning another case of those best quality prints, which they will sell at 12½ cents at retail only; also, one case good longcloth at 12½ cents.

GENTLEMEN: I have just received your extern it reasons to the mountain of the place, after an abonce of two months—and this rophy may be too late for your "Descriptive Gircular of Ingersoll's Cotion Press."

The Press I used in packing my cotton last year worked admirably, packing, with case from 600 to 526 hs. With good active hands to work it, I am satisfied that from eighteen to twenty bales might readily be packed in a day. that from eighbon to twenty bates might readily be packed in a day.

This Press combines the advantages of lightness, and consequent portability and eimplicity (being easily managed by any one of ordinary intelligence). Great compressing force, with fittle tradity power, and "last, but not least," it is worked entirely by hand, thus naving for he farm horses the hard labor imposed upon them by the use of the ordinary "Scrow,"
